Respecting collections of two cer-ain warrants for special taxes for the opening of Hudson avenue, be tween Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets, in the sum of $2000, held by the George H. Tribe Investment com-pany, City Attorney E. T. Hulaniski reported to the city board of commissioners this morning that no notice of intention to levy the tax, which would be jurisdictional foundation for the right to tax, had been given.

Continuing on the question, the city attorney advised the commission that to attempt to collect on the warrants an action de nove would be necessary and that it was questionable whether would succeed.
